(e) the amount likely to be spent on each State including Bihar during the next three years under this programme?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HEALTH AND FAMILY WELFARE (SHRI A. RAJA)

(a) & (b) Under the Reproductive and Child Health Programme, launched in the country 1997, interventions for improving maternal and child health and reducing infant child and maternal morbidity and mortality are being implemented in all the states. These interventions are:

For children, Immunization against six vaccine Preventable diseases, control of deaths due to diarrhoea and Acute Respiratory Infections, prophylaxis for Vitamin A deficiency, Iron deficiency anemia and Essential Newborn Care.

For mothers essential obstetric care; Emergency Obstetric Care; Referral transport for pregnant women with complication of pregnancy through panchayats; provision of drugs and equipment at first referral units; provision of contractual staff like Additional health Workers, staff nurses, doctors and anesthetist. Funds are also being provided for schemes like 24 hours delivery services at selected primary health centres and community health centres.

A new project for strengthening of the immunization programme with World bank assistance has also been finalized and includes 8 districts in Bihar. A scheme for training of Dais is being implemented in 142 districts, including 32 in Bihar with a safe delivery rate of less than 30 percent. In addition, 102 districts, including 16 in Bihar have been identified for holding camps to improve delivery of services under the programme.

(c) & (d) A statement indicating the funds released to States in cash and assistance in kind and expenditure reported by them during the last three years is Annexed.

(e) The budget requirement projected for the year 2001-02 for all the states including Bihar under the RCH Programme is Rs.108,534 lakhs. State wise allocation is made on annual basis only after budgetary provisions are approved by the Parliament. The estimates for the two years thereafter will be known after the finalisation of the 10th Five Year Plan.
